

A week of events to celebrate Pentecost is being planned at St Peter's, Walworth from 21 to 27 May.

The church will be open throughout the week from 8.30am to 7pm with displays by children from local schools, 'celebrating Walworth'; a Toddler 'pray station'; a Labyrinth and places for quiet prayer and reflection.

A Daily Mass at 12.30 will include prayer for the streets of the parish.

Monday to Friday Kreative Kids! will offer a free after-school activity for children ages 5-11 from 3.45-5pm including making headdresses and costumes ready for a Pentecost procession through the parish on Sunday. On Friday a special worship service for the children, their parents, teachers, and carers will begin the Pentecost celebrations.

Quiet Inspiration on Tuesday (10-3.30) is a day for quiet reflection and discovery led by the Rev Sheila Saunders. Lunch will be provided.

...be inspired @ St. Peter's 2007

Inspiring Friendship on Wednesday evening (7pm) will feature Mark Vernon, author of The Philosophy of Friendship, speaking and leading a discussion on friendship.

U- Inspired? On Thursday evening the young people of Walworth lead multimedia worship and present their DVD, Celebrating Walworth, filmed over the past year. They will be assisted by St Peter's Gospel Choir

Friday evening sees Quiz for All - A quiz night for all ages, with live music, followed by food and drink and a singalong.

On Saturday night, the Gospel Choir will join Eagles Wing & Co' and Birmingham's Ministry of Praise' at the Be Inspired! Gospel Concert. Food and drink will be served. Tickets are £10 for Adults, £7.50 for under 16s, and no charge for under 7s. Family tickets are also available

The week ends on Sunday when Bishop Christopher will lead a Pentecost procession through the streets of Walworth to High Mass of the Holy Spirit at St Peter's, followed by a BBQ for all.

For further information, contact Catherine. 0207 703 3139 email: stpeterswalworth_catherine@yahoo.com - St Peter's Church, Liverpool Grove, London SE17 2HH

Taking Oxygen to the Three Peaks

Youth Minister Richard James and several volunteers from Oxygen - Kingston Borough Youth For Christ - are undertaking the Three Peaks

Challenge 2007 - climbing Snowdon, Ben Nevis and Scafell Pike over the weekend of 27-29 July - to raise money that will make the difference to young people throughout South West London and Kingston. They would welcome your support.

Contact Richard on 020 8547 0566 or sponsor on line at : www.justgiving.com/richardbjames. If you are a UK taxpayer, Justgiving will automatically reclaim 28% Gift Aid on your behalf, so your donation is worth even more.

Looks (and sounds) familiar

FOR CHURCHWARDEN Paul Carter at St Mark's, Mitcham, looking and sounding like TV entertainer Bruce Forsyth won him first place in ITV's Stars and the Doubles' two years ago.

This month he's turning that talent to the benefit of the Sutton Branch of the Alzheimer's Society and St Mark's Church with a four hour 'sponsored keyboard playing session' on 12 May (10am-2pm) at the church.

The event is free and refreshments will be served.

Mind the gap...

'Mind the Gap? Rich World, Poor World. The Unfinished Agenda' is a study pack published by Christians Aware for groups of both young people and adults.

The pack looks at a variety of issues involved in reaching the UN Millennium Development Goals by 2015 - including childhood poverty, women's health and nutrition, childbirth, primary health care, NGOs and civil society and local communities and the alleviation of poverty. It includes theological reflection, prayer and poetry.

The pack costs £6 (£4.50 to CA members) plus £2 post and packing (UK). Sheets can be photocopied for group use. For more information contact Christians Aware at 2 Saxby Street, Leicester LE2 0ND Tel/ Fax 0116 254 0770 or visit www.christiansaware.co.uk.

Hymn books available

St John the Divine, Selsdon has 356 copies of Hymns Ancient & Modern, New Standard - words edition (1990) all in good condition with most having the original plastic covers. The parish would be happy to give these books to any church or organisation willing to collect them.

Contact the Rector Rev. Ian Brothwood on 020 8657 2343.

MARTIN CHAPMAN

Electronic Church/Home Organs & Digital Pianos Repaired & Serviced Installation of Audio & Hearing Loop Systems Tel: 020 8 311 6851

SOUND SYSTEMS

Audio excellence can be heaven but need not cost the earth

We offer:

- ★ Bespoke sound systems to suit most budgets
- ★ Induction Loop systems a speciality
- ★ Free of charge consultation including site visit
- ★ All systems available for on-site approval prior to purchase
- ★ Over 100 systems installed - references supplied

OLD BARN AUDIO LTD. Tel or Fax: 01732 832494
E-mail: neilkavanagh@blueyonder.co.uk Mobile: 07830 296715

Cautley House

can now offer a short residential opportunity for your deanery or parish team, pastoral, healing, prayer or home group of up to 8 places (minimum 5). All rooms (2 single, 3 twin) ensuite, equipped with TV, tea/coffee facilities, in our annexe, exclusive use of the sacred space, for two nights full board, slightly below our normal fees, most times of the year.

Contact: Cautley House Christian Centre, 95 Seabrook Road, Seabrook, Hythe, Kent. CT21 5QY. Tel: 01303 230762
Email: cautleyhouse@compuserve.com
Web: www.cautleyhouse.org.uk

Metalsmith and woodworker

Conscientious and reliable, Ian Marshall provides new work and maintenance for a number of churches. To join his list of satisfied customers. Call: 020 8850 7851 or 077 6666 2747

Marshall's Charity

Marshall's Charity was founded in 1631 and gives grants for the support of parsonages and for Church of England churches in certain counties of England. It has assets of nearly £20 million and makes annual grants of over £1 million.

Appointment of a Trustee unremunerated

The Charity is seeking to appoint a trustee who is a solicitor with general commercial property experience. The majority of its assets are held in commercial property and the portfolio is managed by professional staff supported by a major firm of solicitors. The Trustees believe that the appointment of a trustee with relevant experience is important to the effective stewardship of the Charity's assets. This Charity gives substantial long-term assistance to the Church of England and its work is of important strategic significance in the area of parsonage housing. All trustees must be members of the Church of England.

If you are interested, please contact Richard Goatcher, Clerk to the Trustees at 66 Newcomen Street, London SE1 1YT or e-mail richard@marshalls.org.uk to be sent information and an application pack.

Closing date for applications: 15 June 2007 Initial interviews during July 2007